

Mono sideboard

640

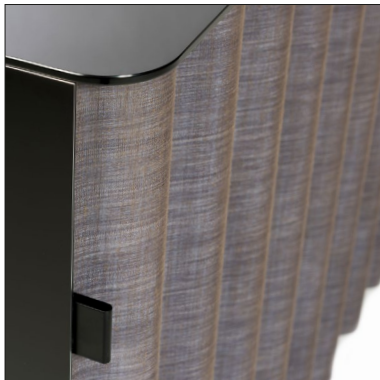

The space-saving concertina front makes it the perfect additional piece of storage furniture for bedrooms as well as dining and living rooms, and even offices and corridors – in fact, anywhere that this compact storage space is needed and finds appeal. There are no doors that need space in which to open. Simply push the elegant concertina aside to make the different levels of this furniture item usable and accessible. A small-form, stylish sideboard with an attractive front and, where visible, a beautifully crafted back.
